STAGE

Unique and Touching Experience of Robert L. Scott

Gus Heege Was a Character-His Successes and Fallures Came-A Bow Under Gloomy Conditions.

'Gus Heege, the original Swedish dialect comedian is dead. That line of play will disappear from the American stage now. The only man who would take the place of Heege is anchored in Hawaii. The Honolulu citizen who would get good backing to go out as a comedy star again is "Bob" Scott, night clerk at the Hawaiian

Heege was only thirty-six when he died. He had made half a dozen fair sized fortunes with his play building and acting, but was not a saving man. He was the son of a Lutheran clergyman at Cleveland, O., and was cursed with the one fault of yleining to drink. Heege was a bright, intellectual, studious chap. He took to the stage on leaving college and while with a company in the Northwest conceived the notion of Swedish dialect pieces. The Northwest is full of Swedes and Norwegians and to Americans they are odd with their broken English and slow, innocent ways. Heege wrote successively and produced himself "Ole Olson," "Yon Yonson" and at half-mast. It turned out upon ar-"A Yenuine Yentleman." The history rival in port that this was not true. of the handling of each by Heege was the same. He sold to managing firms, then in time left the companies. His

He was there for duty, but it made me cry to look at him, for only a couple of hours before he had come from the funeral of his child. 'Bob' was quiet, but he was hurt deep. I was arguing the case with the manager of the house when a messenger came rushing in with the announcement that 'Gus Heege had walked out of a third story experience yesterday forenoon. Two window and had been bruised to death. Another messenger followed a moment later with the correction that Heege was not dead, but was seriously injured and would have been killed but for the fact that he was well primed with liquor. He was sent to a hospital mediately as he had no time to waste. and was on his back for weeks. In fact he was never the same man physically again. I thought this situation of the company meant dismissal of the audience, certainly, but the house manager insisted and I never had a harder thing to in my life than to go to Scott and ask him to play 'Ole.' He said he would do it and we had a barber come to make his face clean, for 'Bob' was then known as the 'whiskered comedian.' In the the spry police officer tripped the the cast, had arrived from the hotel other man had torn the buttons off and though crying intermittantly was Evan's coat but he too was secured and Francisco. ready to go on.

Upon climbing aboard, the ing, perhaps hardly thinking that he was making the difficult presentation the men removed. A message was sent for the first time. He made only one slip and he covered that up. This was where 'Ole' climbs the rope to rescue the heroine from the mill. Scott's strength simply gave out and he dropped back from the hawser. He threw the heavy rope end and his body aganst the door at the same time and made the climax strong as ever. Everything was pretty well all right after tions. The men were then handcuffed the first night. When the story went round that Scott had the part his old which a short time before, they had friends on the paper gave him considerable space. "Bob" wanted to make he trip down here and besides he had een in the circus business with Amercan concerns out in Austral a and thought that he might do well financially with Price & Burns. Of course he was disappointed in every way and will remain in Honolulu unless he shall consent to return to the States to be "Ole Oleson" again, he having a standing offer of a good engagement.

Before going with Macoy, Scott had his own companies and his own plays. He owned "Chip of the Old Block" and Muggs' Landing" and starred several years in both of them. Unlucky or bad outside speculations drove him to the wall. He was pained to hear of the death of Heege, for the pair had been good friends.

The British ship Western Monarch, Evans master, arrived in port at an early hour last evening and hauled alongside the Irmgard wharf, 117 days from Liverpool, with a cargo of 1,950 tons of general merchandise consigned to T. H. Davies & Co., Ltd. She experienced fair weather all the way and. with the exception of a couple of rather severe blows, was most fortunate. The last blow, which occurred a little after rounding the Horn, did slight damage. One of the boats was smashed,

WHARF AND WAVE.

There are in the neighborhood of 14,000 bags of sugar left on Kauai. Captain Freeman is very much delighted with the new steamer Maui. He considers her at the very top notch among the island steamers.

At 8 o'clock yesterday morning the battalion of the U. S. F. S. Baltimore landed for shore drill. The column was headed by the fine band of Capain Dyer's ship.

The Makee reports the following sugar left on Kauai: Kilauea 9,800, Kealia 271, Hanamaulu 6,000, Lihue 4,800, Koloa 2,400, Makaweli 3,000, Kekaha 2,500. Total of 28,771.

The American bark Albert, Griffiths master, sailed for San Francisco early vesterday afternoon with a cargo of 19,485 bags sugar weighing 2,291,724 ounds, valued at $85,236 and shipped by H. Hackfeld & Co. to Williams, Dimond & Co. and W. G. Irwin & Co. to Alexander & Baldwin.
